

Amnesty International

AI@50 Audiovisual Highlights Package Script B Roll Part 3

[ENGLISH]

[12'54'']

Note on copyright: Amnesty International owns or has cleared full non-broadcast and broadcast rights to all footage. All footage is for free and unrestricted worldwide non-broadcast and broadcast use until 27/06/2011. For details on sources of footage and for broadcast rights, please contact the Media and Audiovisual Program at Amnesty International on Tel: +44 (0) 207 413 5566.

Abbreviations:

VO - Voice Over
WS - Wide Shot
MS - Mid Shot
GV - General View
I/V - Interview
CU - Close Up

00:03

GVs of Amnesty International staff at work in 1991
CU of Urgent Action about fear of torture being typed on a computer at Amnesty International's office

00:28 Sierra Leone

CU barbed wire in Freetown, Sierra Leone
WS Freetown
CU houses
MS Women and child walking
GVs Amnesty International Sierra Leone section office in Freetown (the section in Sierra Leone was founded in 1990)
WS British military trucks driving past Amnesty International Sierra Leone section office
GVs little girl amputee in Amputee and War Wounded Camp in Freetown
GVs Tessa Kordeczka, Amnesty international Sierra Leone researcher in 2000, talking to a little girl amputee

Background: The following are images of Amnesty International's mission to Sierra Leone in 2000 where a civil war raged for 11 years (1991-2002).

01:14 Rwanda

GVs AI delegate, Gilbert Martin, walking into a prison in Kigali, Rwanda talking to inmates (1995)

01:32 Afghanistan

GVs camps for displaced people in the North and West of Kabul, Afghanistan (includes shots of children eating bread) 2009

Walking shot with Amnesty International Researcher Horia Mosadiq in camp for displaced people near Herat, Afghanistan (in December 2008)

M/S women (including Amnesty International expert Horia Mosadiq) walking into house of displaced person in camp for displaced people near Herat, Afghanistan.

I/V clip Horia Mosadiq, Amnesty International Researcher on Afghanistan (in English):

"She has tuberculosis and she didn't receive any kind of assistance, any kind of medical assistance. She says that she went to the hospital and she was asking for medication, but unfortunately she didn't receive anything. She has six children and she is suffering from tuberculosis. And even she is complaining that she doesn't have any money to at least buy food to feel better."

Background: In December of 2008, Amnesty International researcher Horia Mosadiq travelled to Afghanistan. She visited several refugee camps in Kabul and Herat provinces, where she met and interviewed some of the more than a quarter of a million people who have been left homeless due to fighting, drought and insecurity.

02:44 Côte d'Ivoire

I/V Alex Neve, Amnesty International, in March 2003 (English):

"We've been concerned since September when these many neighbourhoods in Abidjan were burned, acts of vengeance, acts of cruelty, some of it actually an intentional government policy to destroy what were called 'precarious neighbourhoods', areas that were deemed by the government to be likely shelters for rebels and so many people have lost their homes as a result. We've heard reports that in the process of the burnings of some of those neighbourhoods people were beaten badly."

GVs burnt shanty town in Abidjan, Côte d'Ivoire

GVs newspaper reports of atrocities in Côte d'Ivoire

Background: This was the third Amnesty visit to the Ivory Coast since the break-out of civil war in September 2002. Following a visit to the armed opposition controlled north, the objective this time was to research violations committed by the government.

03:52 Iraq

GVs Amnesty international delegation in Iraq in 2003.

MS June Ray, Amnesty International delegate talking to a US soldier (English)

"This is the leader of the delegation Mr Mahmoud Ben Romdhane; this is Mr Curt Goering"

MS US Soldier

"Good Luck"

GVs Amnesty International delegation visiting the Directorate Security in Baghdad where detainees were tortured

GVs Men show the AI delegates inside the Security Directorate

Background: Amnesty International was able to visit the country in 2003 for the first time in 20 years.*

04:35 Gaza

GVs damage to house

I/V Christopher Cobb-Smith, weapons expert and part of the Amnesty International delegation (English)

"This is just totally consistent with what we've been seeing of this type of missile strike, all week, the hole has been dug out here, a very small narrow deep hole, very small parts of missiles, and fragments penetrating metal work and walls with incredible intensity, you virtually can't find these fragments they've gone in so deep."

Background: In January 2009, Christopher Cobb-Smith a British weapons expert visited Gaza with Amnesty International. The visit followed the devastating bombing campaign launched by Israeli forces without warning on Gaza at the very end of 2008.*

05:13 CAMPAIGNING

05:16

GVs of Amnesty International campaigns in the early 90s (from street campaigning in France to mass rallies in Manila, Philippines)

GVs of children singing in Senegal celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

GVs of people riding on top of pink tank plus Amnesty International signs reading 'Beijing Conference on Women, Not an excuse to Execute' and 'Free Tibet.', in 1995

IV Asad Rehman, during Phoenix Festival, UK in 1998:

"Those people are now free they are free because people at Phoenix Festival took action, they cared."

GVs people signing, campaigning posters, AI stand during 1998 Phoenix Festival

GVs of a torch light procession organised by Amnesty international in Oslo, Norway to march on behalf of Liu Xia Bo the Nobel Peace Prize laureate who is still in prison in China

GVs of various demonstrations organised by Amnesty International across the world to demand the closure of Guantanamo Bay

GVs of Amnesty International campaigning activities to Stop Violence Against Women. A campaign the organisation launched in 2003

GVs of campaigning activities demanding justice for the hundreds of girls killed in Ciudad Juarez and Chihuahua since 2001

IV Norma Ledesma, mother who lost her daughter Paloma (Spanish):

“We want justice, we want justice.”

“We are afraid, we are scared but we will continue to fight so that those who killed my daughter pay and so that all the pigeons can go back to their nest (so our daughters can return home safely).”

GV album cover “Make Some Noise: The Amnesty International Campaign to Save Darfur”.

Background: Yoko Ono donated the recording rights to John Lennon’s entire solo songbook to Amnesty International in 2005. At the same time she and Amnesty International collaborated with over 30 world-class musicians to produce a CD, which in 2007 raised over US$2.5 million for the human rights cause.

GV al-Jeneina, Darfur, Sudan

GV and sound of Liz Hodgkin, Amnesty International Sudan researcher pointing to the vast grassland which once used to be a village (English)

“Habla Kanare and most of these villages in this Masalit area where built entirely of those huts that you have seen with tie roofs and made of grass, so that when they were attacked and set fire to nothing remains it just looks like a grass land.”

WS Liz Hodgkin pointing towards an earth circle in the middle of the field where the camels are grazing. This is where a hut once used to stand.

GVs Ryad camp outside of al-Jeneina

I/V Zenab Osman Abaker Atim, she is originally from Nori (Arabic)

“Again on our way we were stopped by Janjawid. They searched us around the waist. If you don’t have money they want to kill your child. If you say no, they beat the child. When you gave them the choice to kill one but leave the other one, then they would beat both children. We got tired because we were moved so much. (She shows her feet). There were people on horses attacking on the ground and Antonovs bombing from the air and people falling down.”

10:28

GVs woman being brought in to PCMH (maternal hospital in Freetown, Sierra Leone)

MS Doctor examining woman and realising that she has lost the baby

GVs of women, nurser, babies on maternity ward
GVs of concert hosted by Amnesty International to raise awareness about the issue of maternal mortality in Sierra Leone

Background: Amnesty International launched a campaign to end maternal mortality in Sierra Leone in September 2009.

11:29

GVs of Gay Pride in Latvia supported by Amnesty International, 2007

Background: Thanks to the presence of Amnesty International and other activists from abroad the Latvian Gay Pride was allowed to go ahead without any major incidents.

11:36

GVs of slum dwellers marching into Nairobi to raise awareness about the difficulties they are facing

GVs of various aerial art displays for Amnesty International campaigns

GVs of rally for Egypt organised by Amnesty International, in Trafalgar Square, London, on 12 February 2011 (this was part of a global day of action organised by the organisation across the world)

Background: 2009 saw the launch of the major global Demand Dignity campaign. In so doing, Amnesty International increased its remit to end the injustice and exclusion that keeps those in poverty trapped in a cycle of deprivation. The Demand Dignity campaign sought to enable people living in poverty to have control over decisions that affect their lives. The campaign focuses on issues such as maternal mortality, slums, corporate accountability and making certain rights law.

12:54 END

For further details please contact:

Amnesty International

Audiovisual Production

+44(0)207 413 5566